

Deputy Ricardo Safford Testimony

Q. Now, when you were walking him to the EMS van, what did he say to you?

A. He said, My phone was broken. I was -- I tried to call 911. And then he showed me his phone, which was an iPhone. I at that time owned one of those phones. So I tried to press the home button and nothing happened, and I gave the phone back to him.