IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT

VS

§

CITY OF TOMBALL

CARLEY, NANNETTE LEATRICE

HARRIS COUNTY, TEXAS

I, F. T. Mitchell, Affiant and Bailiff of the City of Tomball Municipal Court, being duly sworn on oath, state I have reason to believe and do believe that the above named Defendant committed the offense of:

FAILURE TO APPEAR/BAIL JUMPING, a misdemeanor, on or about the 21st day of April, 2011, in the City of Tomball, Harris County, Texas.

Affiant's belief is based on the following statement:

On the 21st day of April, 2011, the Defendant did willfully violate her written promise to appear in court. Affiant, FRANK MITCHELL, a peace officer, reviewed the citation given to the Defendant, issued by a licensed Texas peace officer, that the citation contained the name and address given by the Defendant, stating the time and place, when and where the Defendant was to appear, and showed that the Defendant gave her written promise to appear by her signature to the written notice prepared by the officer. Affiant was present in the courtroom, in the lobby and on the steps of the courthouse at the time when the Defendant, including the Defendant's name, was distinctly called and believes, based on personal examination of official court records, that the Defendant did not appear, and did not appear by counsel, at the specified time and place as promised.
