10	Plaintiff,)	ORDER – DISMISSING ALL CHARGES
	v.)	WITH PREJUDICE –
11	JAMES FAIRE,)	[x] Clerk's Action Required
12	Defendant.)

CEL

THIS MATTER, having come on before the Court on defendant James Faire's Motion to Dismiss filed on April 30, 2018, the Court having considered the record before the court, the deposition of George Abrantes of June 12, 2018, the hearing of June 28, 2018, and based upon the Findings of Facts and Conclusions of Law set forth in the Memorandum Opinion Granting Motion to Dismiss of July 12, 2018, the court being otherwise fully advised in the premise and having concluded that no other recourse exists;

Now, therefore: Counts 1 & 2 of the State's First Amended Information, ~~All charges premised on the nexus of facts culminating in the arrest of James Faire on June 18, 2015, including all charges previously brought, amended or dismissed for other reasons, are~~ including alternative charges alleged in Counts 1A and 1B, hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
